1 On January 3, 2007, this case was referred to Early Neutral Evaluation (“ENE”) by this
2 Court. On January 24, 2007, Stanely L. Gibson of Gibson, Robb & Lindh LLP was appointed as
3 the ENE evaluator. Although not in the Scheduling Order, the parties were advised by Mr. Gibson
4 that the ENE had to be conducted by March 13, 2007.

5 All parties, by and through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate to continue the deadline
6 to conduct the ENE from March 13, 2007 to April 27, 2007.

I. RECITALS

1. The Court has appointed Stanely L. Gibson of Gibson, Robb & Lindh LLP as the ENE Evaluator.

2. On March 1, 2007, the parties participated in a pre-ENE conference call with Mr. Gibson.

3. Due to vacation schedules and other conflicts of the attorneys who must attend, the parties agreed to short continuance of the ENE until the end of April, specifically April 27, 2007.

4. This short continuance is also necessary since we have been advised by Craig K. Martin of the Law Office of Craig K. Martin that he will be substituting in as counsel for plaintiff. Mr. Martin has advised that he is on vacation until March 12, 2007.

5. The parties have tentatively agreed to April 3, 2007, for the date of the ENE conference, but it is unknown if plaintiff's new counsel will be able to attend that date.

6. For these reasons, the parties have agreed to stipulate to extend the deadline to conduct the ENE conference until April 27, 2007.

7. The parties do not seek to continue any other deadlines other than the ENE deadline of March 13, 2007.

Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to continue the deadline to conduct the ENE conference as follows:
